Hey Brian, I'm writing to submit a freedom of information act request.

Please provide access to or copies of any and all emails to and from Gov. Henry McMaster and his staff that mention the word "Caslen" or "West Point" that were sent between April 15, 2019 and July 9, 2019. Please include the date an email was sent, the intended recipients, the intended carbon copy recipients and the intended blind carbon copy recipients, the date the email was sent and any and all attachments related to these emails.

Please provide the documents in their native format. A PDF would also be acceptable, though not preferred.

Because this is in the public interest, it would be preferable if we were not charged for records. But, in the case that you find it necessary, please let me know ahead of time what the estimated price for said records would be.

Thanks,

Dear Mr. Daprile:

On or about July 9, 2019, the Office of the Governor ("Office") received your email requesting certain records pursuant to the South Carolina Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"), S.C. Code Ann. §§ 30-4-10 et seq. According to your FOIA request, it is this Office's understanding you are seeking the following:

> any and all emails to and from Gov. Henry McMaster and his staff that mention the word "Caslen" or "West Point" that were sent between April 15, 2019 and July 9, 2019.

The present letter will serve as this Office's reply and initial determination that we have identified certain records as potentially responsive to one or more portions of the FOIA request.

Due to the high volume of FOIA requests received by the Office and the significant costs associated therewith, please note that this Office is authorized to charge reasonable fees for searching for, copying, transferring, and redacting records pursuant to section 30-4-30(B) of the South Carolina Code of Laws. A summary of this Office's discounted fee schedule is available at www.governor.sc.gov/news/foia. This Office remains committed to performing a reasonable search and providing you with a comprehensive and relevant response in the most expeditious and efficient manner possible. To this end, please be advised that the total discounted fee associated with searching for records and responding to the present FOIA request should not exceed $50.00. Although we will continue to make every effort to reduce costs, we are notifying you of the anticipated production expenses in advance, as you requested. The full amount of the total cost must be paid prior to or at the time of the production of records.

This Office will finish searching for, compiling, and reviewing responsive records. Once we have completed our reasonable search of records in the possession, custody, or control of this Office, we will contact you to coordinate production of those records identified as responsive to your FOIA request, subject to any applicable exclusions or limitations under state or federal law. Finally, in accordance with section 30-2-50 of the South Carolina Code of Laws, this letter will serve as the requisite notice that "obtaining or using public records for commercial solicitation directed to any person in this State is prohibited." S.C. Code Ann. § 30-2-50(B).

Once again, thank you for your recent correspondence and records request. Should you have any questions or concerns regarding anything mentioned above or otherwise, please let me know.

Most sincerely,

Anita S. Fair

Pursuant to the South Carolina Freedom of Information Act, §30-4-10 et seq., I request access and electronic copies of the following reports and public records:

- Email correspondence between Governor Henry McMaster and the entire University of South Carolina Board of Trustees between the dates of January 1, 2019 to present.

According to Section (C) of Code 30-4-20, a public record is defined as, ..."All books, papers, maps, photographs, cards, tapes, recordings, and other documentary materials, regardless of physical form or characteristics prepared, owned used, in the possession of or retained by a public body..." This includes all records that were prepared, owned, used, in the possession of, or retained by the requested Office.

As provided by the state's Public Records Act, I will expect a response within 10 to 15 business days. See S.C. Code Ann. Sec. 30-4-30(c).

I would note that willful violation of the open records law is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of up to $100 or imprisonment for up to 30 days. See S.C. Code Ann. Sec. 30-4-110. Court costs and reasonable attorney fees may also be awarded. See Sec. 30-4-100.

I ask all applicable fees with this request, including any retrieval and/or copying costs, be waived as both the member of the news media and that in the disclosure of this information is in the public's best interest.

If our request is denied in whole or in part, you must justify all deletions by reference to the specific exemptions and/or codes of the South Carolina Open Records Law Act. Please note that WLTX-News 19 will expect you to release all segregable portions of otherwise exempt material.

We reserve the right to appeal your decision to withhold any information.

We ask that you communicate with me by telephone or email. I can be reached at: (803) 309-9480 or lthomas@wltx.com

As I've made this request in the capacity as a journalist and the information is of grave timely value, I would appreciate you expediting this request by all means and forms.

We ask that you provide all responsive records in machine-readable and electronic format, which includes email and excel. If the files are too large for you to send via email, we can provide access to a DropBox folder or hard drive to help with the electronic transfer.

Sincerely,

In re: Freedom of Information Act Request

Dear Governor McMaster:

Please accept this letter as a request for public records pursuant to the South Carolina Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), S.C. Code Ann. §§ 30-4-10 et seq., to you and your Office. Specifically, this request seeks the following public records, including emails and text message correspondence:

1. All correspondence between you or employees of your Office, on the one hand, and Robert L. Caslen, Jr. or one of his employees or agents, on the other.

2. All correspondence between you or employees of your Office, on the one hand, and U.S. Senator Lindsay Graham or employees of his office, on the other, that relate to Robert L. Caslen, Jr. in any way.

Please note that for the purpose of this request, the term "emails" includes personal email addresses used by you or employees of your Office (e.g., gmail, yahoo, Hotmail, AOL, private business address, etc.) if used to communicate or transmit responsive public records. Likewise, the term "text messages" includes messages sent using any phone in your custody or control or the custody or control of an employee of your Office regardless of the account holder (e.g., personal, private business, government, etc.) wireless carrier, or device. "Public record" or "public records" has the meaning provided in South Carolina Code § 30-4-20(c), as amended. "Relating to" means embodying, containing, comprising, indicating, concerning, referring, identifying, describing, discussing, involving, evidencing or otherwise pertaining to.

Certain matters are exempt from public disclosure. See id. § 30-4-40(a). If a requested item is exempt from public disclosure, please exercise your authority under the FOIA and waive the exemption. See id. If a public record contains exempt and nonexempt material, you must separate the exempt and nonexempt material and produce the nonexempt material. Id. § 30-4-40(b). If you chose to invoke an exemption, it should do so expressly, in writing, and in a manner that specifically identifies what is being withheld. Similarly, if you invoke a claim of "privileged communication", "protected information", or "protected identify", it should do so with specificity. See id. § 30-4-40(c). Claims of privilege should also describe the document withheld, the date of the communication, and the identity of all persons sending and receiving the purportedly privileged communication. Public records should not be redacted except as expressly allowed by law.

If you request fees in exchange for the disclosure of responsive public records, those fees must be based on a uniform, established schedule that does not exceed the actual cost of searching for or making copies of responsive public records. See S.C. Code Ann. § 30-4-30(B). "Fees may not be charged for examination and review to determine if the documents are subject to disclosure." Id. Please note that you have a legal obligation to furnish public records "at the lowest possible cost to the person requesting the records." Id.

You are required to respond within 10 days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays). See S.C. Code Ann. § 30-4-30(C). That response should state whether the request is granted and the availability of the requested records. If the request is granted, the responsive records must be furnished or made available for inspection or copying no later than 30 calendar days from the date of your response. See id.

I look forward to receiving your response.

If you should have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at [redacted]@gmail.com or [redacted]. Thank you for your help and assistance.

Dear Mr. Bailey:

On or about July 18, 2019, the Office of the Governor ("Office") received your email requesting certain public records pursuant to the South Carolina Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"), S.C. Code Ann. §§ 30-4-10 et seq. According to your FOIA request, it is this Office's understanding you are seeking public records, if any, responsive to the following:

1. All correspondence between you or employees of your Office, on the one hand, and Robert L. Caslen, Jr. or one of his employees or agents, on the other.
2. All correspondence between you or employees of your Office, on the one hand, and U.S. Senator Lindsay Graham or employees of his office, on the other, that relate to Robert L. Caslen, Jr. in any way.

Having previously acknowledged receipt of the aforementioned FOIA request, the present letter will serve as this Office's timely reply and determination. Based on our search efforts to date, we have not identified non-exempt public records responsive to your request. The Office is continuing to search for records in connection with your FOIA request, as well as other inquiries that may overlap with the scope or general subject matter of your FOIA request. We anticipate that ongoing search efforts in connection with one or more of these separate inquiries will likely yield non-exempt public records "that relate to Robert L. Caslen, Jr." Accordingly, per your telephone conversation and verbal agreement with Thomas Limehouse earlier this afternoon, this letter will confirm that the Office will combine your request with other similar inquires and provide you with a consolidated document production on or before September 6, 2019. We anticipate that this Office's ongoing search and retrieval efforts will require several additional hours of staff time and resources; however, we remain committed to providing you with a comprehensive and relevant response in the most expeditious and efficient manner possible.

As you and Mr. Limehouse discussed, once we have completed our reasonable search of records in the possession, custody, or control of this Office relating to this and other related requests, we will contact you to coordinate production of those records identified as responsive to all related FOIA requests, subject to any applicable exclusions or limitations under state or federal law which we will memorialize in a production letter at that time. Due to the high volume of FOIA requests received by this Office and the significant costs associated therewith, please note that we are authorized to charge reasonable fees for searching for, copying, transferring, and redacting records pursuant to section 30-4-30(B) of the South Carolina Code of Laws. A summary of this Office's fee schedule is available at www.governor.sc.gov/news/foia.

We look forward to working with you and will contact you as soon as we have finished searching for and compiling any responsive records. Of course, should you have any questions or concerns in the interim regarding anything mentioned above or otherwise, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Most sincerely,

Anita A. Fair

As you and Mr. Brian Symmes discussed and agreed, this letter will confirm that the Office will combine your request with other similar inquiries and provide you with a consolidated production of records identified as responsive to one or more of the related FOIA requests, subject to any applicable exclusions or limitations under state or federal law. Once we have completed our reasonable search of records in the possession, custody, or control of this Office relating to this and other similar requests, we will contact you to coordinate production and we will further memorialize our response in a letter on or before September 6, 2019.

Due to the high volume of FOIA requests received by the Office and the significant costs associated therewith, please note that this Office is authorized to charge reasonable fees for searching for, copying, transferring, and redacting records pursuant to section 30-4-30(B) of the South Carolina Code of Laws. A summary of this Office's discounted fee schedule is available at www.governor.sc.gov/news/foia. This Office remains committed to performing a reasonable search and providing you with a comprehensive and relevant response in the most expeditious and efficient manner possible.

Once again, thank you for your recent correspondence and records request. Should you have any questions or concerns regarding anything mentioned above or otherwise, please let me know.

Most sincerely,

Mr. Mintzer- Good afternoon. As you are aware, this Office is providing a joint response production for related FOIA requests regarding "Caslen" and the USC presidential search, and we are including you in our production. As such, we appreciate you and the other requestors agreeing with Brian Symmes to an extension since we are still dealing with the Hurricane and evacuation/emergency orders this week. Therefore, we will still provide you with our joint response production at the same time as the other requestors, but it will not be until the end of next week. This email serves as our written mutual agreement expressing the change in the production date. Please let me know if you have any questions or issues, and we appreciate your understanding. Have a good day.

All the best,
Mardi Fair

Brian -

I request access to all communication by the governor and his staff regarding the University of South Carolina president search from April 1 to July 23.
This request is for all communications that took place on both state-owned and personal email accounts, instant-messaging accounts and phones.
Let me know if you need additional information.
I look forward to your reply.

Dear Mr. Shain:

On or about July 23, 2019, the Office of the Governor ("Office") received your email requesting certain records pursuant to the South Carolina Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"), S.C. Code Ann. §§ 30-4-10 et seq. According to your FOIA request, it is this Office's understanding you are seeking:

> all communication by the governor and his staff regarding the University of South Carolina president search from April 1 to July 23.

The present letter will serve as this Office's reply and initial determination that we have identified certain records as potentially responsive to one or more portions of the FOIA request.

The Office is continuing to search for records in connection with your FOIA request, as well as other inquiries that may overlap with the scope or general subject matter of your FOIA request. As you and Mr. Brian Symmes discussed and agreed, this letter will confirm that the Office will combine your request with other similar inquiries and provide you with a consolidated production of records identified as responsive to one or more of the related FOIA requests, subject to any applicable exclusions or limitations under state or federal law. Once we have completed our reasonable search of records in the possession, custody, or control of this Office relating to this and other similar requests, we will contact you to coordinate production and we will further memorialize our response in a letter on or before September 6, 2019.

Due to the high volume of FOIA requests received by the Office and the significant costs associated therewith, please note that this Office is authorized to charge reasonable fees for searching for, copying, transferring, and redacting records pursuant to section 30-4-30(B) of the South Carolina

Code of Laws. A summary of this Office's discounted fee schedule is available at www.governor.sc.gov/news/foia. This Office remains committed to performing a reasonable search and providing you with a comprehensive and relevant response in the most expeditious and efficient manner possible.

Once again, thank you for your recent correspondence and records request. Should you have any questions or concerns regarding anything mentioned above or otherwise, please let me know.

Most sincerely,

Anita S. Fair

Mr. Bailey— Good afternoon. As you are aware, this Office is providing a joint response production for related FOIAs regarding "Calsen" and the USC presidential search, and we are including you in our production. As such, the other requestors have agreed to a one week extension since we are still dealing with the Hurricane and evacuation/emergency orders this week. Therefore, we will still provide you with our joint response production at the same time as the other requestors, but it will not be until the end of next week. Please let me know if you have any questions or issues, and we appreciate your understanding. Have a good day.

Hey Brian,

Any comment on McMaster pushing for Robert L. Caslen to be the next president of USC?
Any reason why the governor wants him?
Will McMaster be at the meeting in Friday for the vote?

Thanks,

Jamal

In order for the governor to have the authority to suspend an elected official from office, they must be indicted for a "crime involving moral turpitude." Ms. Elkins-Johnson has not been indicted and the Supreme Court has determined that disorderly conduct is not considered to be a crime involving moral turpitude, so the governor does not have the authority to suspend her.

Hey Brian,

Can you send me a statement in response to an altercation involving Richland School District Two board vice chairman Monica Elkins Johnson?

According to the school board's policy the governor has the authority to suspend a school board official who doesn't represent the district respectfully.

Thanks!

Can you confirm that the governor has requested and received a vote on Robert Caslen for USC President? If so is Governor McMaster available to discuss why that vote should be held without students on campus a large portion of whom clearly opposed Caslen's nomination? If he is not available can you send me a statement explaining the request? Thank you.

The State: McMaster forces vote on controversial USC presidential finalist while students are away
https://www.thestate.com/news/local/education/article232415817.html

S.C. Gov. Henry McMaster has successfully pressured the University of South Carolina's board of trustees to cast a vote on a controversial candidate for president.

McMaster has called every member of the school's board of trustees pressuring them to support former West Point Superintendent Robert L. Caslen to be the next president of USC, said Trustee Charles H. Williams.

A vote is scheduled for this Friday at 10 a.m., Williams said.

"(McMaster) has met with some board members and said if they didn't call a meeting he would," Williams said. "I don't think it's appropriate."

Caslen was one of four finalists selected in April to replace Harris Pastides as the school's president. Facing protests from students saying they did not want Caslen as president, USC's board of trustees reopened the presidential search and named USC Upstate Chancellor Brendan Kelly as interim president.

This is not the first time McMaster has vouched for Caslen. Shortly after USC reopened the presidential search, McMaster called Caslen and encouraged him to reapply for the position — but did not call the other three candidates — according to the Post and Courier of Charleston.

"I'm not a Caslen fan," Williams said. "I think we can do better."

Asked why, Williams cited the high percentage of negative comments made about Caslen in the university's public feedback process.

The timing of McMaster's push comes as students and faculty are away for the summer. Williams thinks that's intentional.

"He's trying to get it done quickly. He's trying to get this done when the students and faculty are on summer vacation," Williams said.

When The State reached out to board of trustee Chair John Von Lehe Tuesday morning to confirm the governor has been calling trustees, he said, "It would just not be appropriate for me to comment."

Asked if there were any meetings or official board matters scheduled in regards to the presidential search, Von Lehe declined to comment.

The State has reached out to McMaster's office.

Williams expects the next round of searching for a president to yield even more qualified candidates, he said. That's because some likely thought former USC Provost Michael Amiridis was a "shoe-in," but since he was not among the finalists, others who want the job may think they have a chance, Williams said.

Amiridis did apply for the job, but withdrew his application after all applications had been submitted, Williams said.

Dear Governor McMaster,

I have taken some time to write because I wanted to get a clear head about the sad events that transpired when the candidates came to interview for the USC presidency. Having given this much thought and prayer, I will say that I am delighted to see that this embarrassing event was not forgotten and that you have called on the Board to step up to the plate. I am just hopeful that the candidates will even consider a return should one of them, particularly, Bob Caslen, be selected.

That board! As a retiree who is still working at USC, I was extremely disappointed by the Board's behavior around this opportunity to right many of the issues the University has struggled through over the last few years, namely finances, rising tuition and constantly lagging behind Clemson and MUSC. In the end, the board which is supposed to be some of the wisest leaders in the state, caved in to a handful of radical students and faculty. While I am upfront in saying that I do not sit in their shoes, I am extremely disappointed and disgusted in their failure to lead.

1. They, as supposed wise leaders, bent down to a few students who are in the early years of becoming wise adults and to the handful of extreme faculty who do not represent the faculty and staff at large. They folded to the honors college students who demanded broader representation among the candidates. In my opinion the Board should have righted the woman candidate issue as soon as it was raised. They should have come forward to defend the year-long search and final candidate selection. Yet, they remained silent.

2. The way General Caslen was treated was abhorrent and an embarrassment to the entire state. This board single-handedly denied our state the opportunity to have a leader who sat in the seat and role of American heroes like Pierre Beauregard (a SC hero), Robert E. Lee, William Westmorland and Douglas McArthur. Our students have been denied the opportunity to learn and grow from the life and examples of a true National leader. One who has served our country and now wants to continue giving to our future generations. Our athletic teams have been denied the opportunity to have a leader who has a record of making winners out of sports hopefuls. I was there and heard nothing but positive comments about General Caslen after his presentations and Q&A sessions. Dissenters were surely in the minority and did not speak out in those forums.

3. The board's failure to lead only means business as usual. Tuition will continue to increase. No action will be taken to make the Five Points neighborhood safe for students and residents. Students will continue to be adrift in drugs and alcohol. Suicides will continue to rise. Our sports teams will continue to be subpar and inconsistent. The university's neighbors will continue to be plagued with crime and vandalism. So many of us were hopeful that maybe, just maybe, we would get a leader who would actually be willing to take on these very tough issues and not be content to "make nice" with heads in the sand and remain silent.

It is sad, so very said. Sad, that the candidates were treated with such disrespect. Sad, that the board, entrusted with the responsibility of carrying out the mission of the university and ensuring its financial stability, would be so spineless. Sad that it may now be very difficult to get any candidates to consider this position and who would blame them?

Finally, I cannot speak for the other candidates, but my husband is a retired Army Chaplain and we know firsthand of the character and leadership qualities of General Caslen. The way he was treated was inexcusable. I appreciate that you have called the board to accountability. I have served and benefited from the University of South Carolina as a student and as a faculty member. I would like to see her have the best president and believe you do as well. Thank you for calling the board to accountability and I am praying for the outcome.

<SUBJECT>Mishandling of the University of South Carolina Presidential Search</SUBJECT>
<MSG>
Good evening,

As a University of South Carolina student, I would like to register a grievous complaint about Governor McMaster's handling of the appointment of the president of the university. Students and faculty have made it very clear that we were unhappy with the lack of transparency and diversity during the last presidential search and issues with finalists. Thankfully, the the Board of Trustees voted and made their decision: Robert L. Caslen and other finalists were not the right match for this specific university at this time, and the search for the next president will continue.

If it is true and I trust the reporting and honesty of people cited in regards to the situation, it is absolutely disgusting behavior to try and re-open the matter and force a vote on any of these finalists after this decision was made. Moreover, it seems incredibly under-handed to do this while the majority of students and faculty are away. According to the Board of Trustees minutes, Governor McMaster has never attended a single meeting. I understand he is a busy man, but if you cannot be bothered because you are too busy to attend meetings of our university, you surely do not know nearly enough to outweigh students, faculty, and the Board of Trustees' concerns and ideas about who is and who is not a good fit to lead our institution.

Please face this university and address all of our concerns. Do not force a vote on any candidate. Tell us what is genuinely happening, and search for a better candidate to uphold Carolina's traditions and prestige. Our students, faculty, community, and all of the taxpayers of this great state deserve much better than this. This forced vote needs to end and the extended search that the University of South Carolina community was promised needs to occur!

I look forward to hearing the governor and his office address these and all of the other community members' concerns immediately.

Good evening,

I have sent a similar e-mail to Governor McMaster's office, but I believe this matter is so important and pressing that everyone involved and with the power to do something, should be aware of my (and the greater Carolina's) concerns.

As a University of South Carolina student, I would like to register a grievous complaint about Governor McMaster's handling of the appointment of the president of the university. Students and faculty have made it very clear that we were unhappy with the lack of transparency and diversity during the last presidential search and issues with finalists. Dear Gov. McMaster,
I have worked for USC in Columbia for 18 years and I am appalled that you are convening the BoT to take a vote on a candidate for President that was already rejected by the entire USC community, not just the students who petitioned at the BoT vote meeting. Mr. Caslen was the fourth choice of four candidates from a very weak applicant pool. I am proud of the Honors College students who have come forward to voice their concerns about this process, the candidates, and this new insult.

"This makes me sick," tweeted former USC student government president Taylor Wright, who was on the presidential search committee. "Ignoring the (very serious & credible) concerns of the majority of the students, faculty, & staff is wrong on every level."

Taylor, I could not have said it better.

Shame on you, Gov.

<MSG>
Dear Governor McMaster,
Although we do not live in the great state of South Carolina, we are happy that you are the governor. Conservatism is far from dead but as you well know the issue at hand for a vote on General Caslen for President of USC is an attack on the establishment and more over the values of the majority of the people of the state of South Carolina.
My son is a rising junior at USC, an honors student, political science major, active student government representative and yes, he is a conservative.
I had previously written the board of trustees when they would not vote on General Caslen, and of course there was no response.
I have again emailed via the board of trustees email address the following:
Dear Honorable Trustees:
I had previously written as a concerned parent in regards to the lack of a vote on General Caslen. At the request of the Honorable Governor McMaster, I am hoping that a vote will be taken this time.

My son is a rising junior at USC, and active in student government. He was disheartened by the lack of a vote.

General Caslen served our country with distinction, and moreover as you are aware he managed a budget of over $750 million dollars, close to USC spending.

I know you are well aware of his major accomplishments but the key ones as I see it is that:
1. During is leadership West Point was named the #1 public college in the country.
2. He was highly successful in generating over $425 million in fundraising for academics as well as athletics
3. Co-Chair of the Commission to Eliminate Sexual Violence on College Campuses for the NCAA
4. Led historic social reform to improve diversity and opportunity for all cadets and faculty, gender integration and expanding minority and women populations at West Point.

Therefore when you hear voices of a very miniscule minority of the student body, can you truly agree with their sentiments when you look at just the four accomplishments listed above.

I urge each of you to assess General Caslen on his merits as a leader, not a member of the "establishment ". We unfortunately are seeing many colleges swing so far anti-establishment that they would pander to a small vocal fraction of the study body. It is time that the trustees are the adults in the room and do what is best for the University of South Carolina and the majority of the student body.

Sincerely,
Gerard Abate, MD

I would like to express my dismay to the recent news that Mr. Caslen will be considered again for president of the University of South Carolina. As a Ph.D. graduate from the university, I find him not only to be a poor fit, but lacking many basic prerequisites to be the leader of a public university such as USC. I hope you will reconsider and make the right choice for USC, which is not Mr. Caslen as president.

Thank you,

Greg Harris, Ph.D.

Governor,
First of all, I wanted to let you know that we have a family connection. Your father was my parents' lawyer for a LONG time back in the 80's and 90's - my folks are Hank and Cathy Ertter. They used to own an operate Champion Rent-To-Own with locations across South Carolina, and your Father worked hard to protect both their business interests, and our family. For that, I am very grateful.

Secondly, as a fellow USC alumni and an active voter within your constituency, I wanted to express to you my personal feelings on the search for the next President of USC.

My feelings are that it is inappropriate for you to be personally involved in this search. Gen. Caslen has proven to be exceedingly unpopular with both the student body AND faculty. In fact, ~82% of students and faculty oppose Gen. Caslen's candidacy. The way we get the best President for USC is to let the students and faculty influence the process, in my opinion.

I also don't believe that politics should play a part in this selection process. It is my position that you should let the University select its own President without interference or influence from your administration.

I remain hopeful that you will help USC find a President that has a vision for the future of our University, and that will stay in that position for years to come.

Thank you for your time,
Jason C. Ertter

Dear Gov. McMaster,
Not only do I have strong concerns as to whether Robert Caslen is the right choice for USC president, I am dismayed to see you attempt to strong arm the process as detailed by The State and The Post and Courier newspapers.

I have a daughter currently at USC starting the Upper Level of Nursing School, and another headed to Clemson University this fall. Please respect the voices of the students and faculties of those institutions in hiring decisions. Otherwise, you are creating a recipe for failure.

I offer these comments personally out of my concerns for my children and my state. I also serve on Isle of Palms City Council, though I am not speaking officially on behalf of the rest of the council.

Thank you,
Susan Hill Smith

I have just heard about the decision to force a vote on Robert Caslen for USC president, and I am shocked and infuriated. The Governor knows, as does the wider USC community, that students and faculty had serious objections to this candidate last spring - objections that played a large part in drawing the presidential search to a halt. To force a vote on any candidate, let alone this one, in mid-July is an act of underhanded bullying that shows a complete lack of respect for the university community. I have been a faculty member at USC for eleven years now. I love this institution. I will not sit by quietly while it suffers this level of disrespect from the State House. Please call off this vote.

If recent news is true, you have been attempting to pressure USC's BOT into a vote on Caslen. Please refrain from using your position to apply political pressure to our state's universities. If you'd like to really help our universities, please listen to the pleas of the sitting presidents (without bias towards one particular institution) and attempt to assist them with their issues. One major issue is funding. Maybe taking the stance to increase government funding for your state institutions would make higher education more available to SC residents thus increasing our positioning for jobs and helping our economy. The student debt crisis is no joke either and definitely contributes to consumer debt and lack wealth in our state. Just some thoughts.

Hello,

I am a mostly apolitical person and this is the first time I have ever written in a complaint to the Governor. However, I am very disappointed with the direction of the USC President search, particularly rushing a vote on Friday. While I am sure Gen. Caslen is a fine man and great military leader, when he was a candidate for the vacant position he made several very troubling statements regarding sexual assault on campus and his past comments on Muslims are extremely alarming. When it became clear that there was a consensus against him, the Board rightly decided to postpone a decision. I am afraid that pushing through a vote now, during the summer, will lead to an extreme backlash on the part of students, faculty, and alumni that will tarnish his tenure and do great damage to the university as a whole.

I fear the long term consequences this decision could create and beg the Governor and the rest of the board to reconsider the decision. I urge everyone involved to seek out candidates that can unite the Carolina Community and do what's right for our future.

Thank you.

After reading the article in The State Newspaper about how Governor McMaster has tried to pressure the USC board of trustees into selecting Robert Caslen as the next USC President, I am utterly appalled.

The selection of the next president of the flagship university of the state of SC should NOT IN ANY WAY BE POLITICALLY INFLUENCED and should NOT be a de facto political appointment. This is completely unacceptable and frankly reprehensible behavior for the governor of the state. Trying to force the trustees to vote for a candidate who has already been found unacceptable at a time when many students and faculty are away from campus is disgraceful to put it mildly. The governor should rethink his actions and apologize to the Trustees, the USC community and the citizens of this state.

Dear Governor McMaster,
The Army Cyber Institute at West Point is putting on the third rendition of the Jack Voltaic event in which local/state/federal/public agencies come together and work through cyber scenarios to find ways to mitigate cyber attacks. I work for AECOM, but have worked hand in hand with Cybercommand. The outcomes and lessons learned for all the participants have been eye opening. Joining in a public private partnership to help mitigate the risks the state faces may be the most cost effective path forward. Not to mention the millions available in grants to smaller municipalities. I wasn't sure to who to reach out to at the state level, but I wanted to at least make you aware. Is there someone on your staff that might be interested in attending a planning session on July 9-10? These efforts will help make SC a safer place.

Thank you for your service to our great state!
Thanks, Kyle Kilroy

The Army Cyber Institute at West Point invites you to the first of three Jack Voltaic 3 (JV3) planning events on July 9th and 10th in Augusta, GA.

The purpose of this planning event is to layout a non-standard, time constrained experiment / exercise projected for early 2020 that strengthens the cybersecurity of municipalities and their critical infrastructure by preparing for a cyber event/attack that impacts Emergency Management Services and the Armed Forces ability to deploy by land and sea.

This event will be at the UNCLASSIFIED level and is open to anyone in your professional network.

Please contact me for additional details on JV3.

The official invitation with a detailed agenda, location, and RSVP options for this event will be published soon.

In the meantime, please submit any questions to acijackvoltaic@westpoint.edu

On Behalf of Board of Trustees Chairman John C. von Lehe, Jr.:

My fellow Board members:

This is to advise that the meeting of the Board of Trustees scheduled for Friday, July 12 at 10:00 a.m. has been cancelled in light of questions raised regarding state law requirements for notice to Board members.

Section 59-117-50 of the South Carolina Code of Laws provides: "Notice of the time and place of all meetings, both regular and special meetings, of the board of trustees of the University of South Carolina shall be mailed by the secretary or the assistant to each trustee not less than five days before each meeting thereof."

Members of the board have filed objections to Friday's meeting citing the failure to receive the required 5 days notice. After consultation with University Counsel, I have determined that the meeting should be cancelled. Please respond that you received this cancellation notice.

The Board Office will contact you to discuss the date on which to reschedule the meeting.

Best,
John

Dr Carl Broggi, pastor of Community Bible Church, Beaufort's largest Church, is calling Rose Newton (wife of Rep GOP Wes Newton) on your behalf and in support of Lt. Gen Robert Caslen. Rose has returned his call and they will talk today, 7/18. . Dr. Broggi is influential, persuasive and strategic leader in Beaufort County. He can make your case to Rose Newton.
Can you recruit Atty General Alan Wilson to contact Thad Westbrook, 11th Circuit? I understand they are very good friends. I hope this helps. I hope there is not a secret cabal to install Acting Chancellor Brendan Kelly as Pres of USC if the effort of Robert Caslen falls short. Kelly is a liberal and leftist and would not be good for USC Pres. Remember the liberal left always has plan B and Plan C if their plan A fails.
This heroic effort to elect Lt. Gen Caslen as Pres of USC may prove to be 1 of your best moments, assuming it is successful. I hear lots of kudos and strong praise of your effort on this. In order for the governor to have the authority to suspend an elected official from office, they must be indicted for a "crime involving moral turpitude." Ms. Elkins-Johnson has not been indicted and the Supreme Court has determined that disorderly conduct is not considered to be a crime involving moral turpitude, so the governor does not have the authority to suspend her.

Robert Caslen, Jr. addresses faculty, students and alumni during a forum inside Ernest F. Hollings Library at UofSC Tuesday April 23, 2019, in Columbia, SC. By Gavin McIntyre

S.C. Gov. Henry McMaster's office has broken its silence on the University of South Carolina's presidential search.

The statement acknowledges McMaster contacted board of trustee members and asked them to cast a vote. It further reiterates McMaster's support for former U.S Military Academy at West Point Superintendent Robert Caslen.

Here is the full statement, attributed to spokesman Brian Symmes:

"In his capacity as the ex-officio chairman of the university's board, the governor has contacted each of his fellow board members and has encouraged them to select a permanent president for the University of South Carolina as soon as possible. To suggest that the governor, who by law is a member of the board of trustees, did anything improper is preposterous. Governor McMaster has made no secret about the fact, that as a member of the board, he believes Gen. Robert Caslen is supremely qualified and is perfectly suited to address the challenges ahead for the University of South Carolina."

McMaster's involvement in the presidential search has drawn its share of unintended consequences including: a unanimous vote of "no confidence" in Caslen from the Faculty Senate, possible student protests, potential action from USC's accrediting organization and the involvement of a national professor's association.

The vote on Caslen was originally scheduled for Friday, July 12, but a court order blocked that and pushed it back to Friday, July 19, according to previous articles from The State.

On Behalf of Board of Trustees Chairman John C. von Lehe, Jr.:

My fellow Board members:

This is to advise that the meeting of the Board of Trustees scheduled for Friday, July 12 at 10:00 a.m. has been cancelled in light of questions raised regarding state law requirements for notice to Board members.

Section 59-117-50 of the South Carolina Code of Laws provides: "Notice of the time and place of all meetings, both regular and special meetings, of the board of trustees of the University of South Carolina shall be mailed by the secretary or the assistant to each trustee not less than five days before each meeting thereof."

Members of the board have filed objections to Friday's meeting citing the failure to receive the required 5 days notice. After consultation with University Counsel, I have determined that the meeting should be cancelled. Please respond that you received this cancellation notice.

The Board Office will contact you to discuss the date on which to reschedule the meeting.

Best,
John

Hi there,

I'm Nell, a reporter at the Chronicle of Higher Education, and I'm working on a story about the USC Board of Trustees vote that's scheduled for tomorrow on whether Gen. Robert Caslen will be the next president of the university. I understand that Gov. McMaster called for this vote and has been urging trustees to hire Gen. Caslen. It's unusual for a governor to get so closely involved with the hiring of a university president, so I'm writing to make sure the information I have is correct and if so, to hear from you why the governor has taken this approach.

I can be reached at 202-466-1059 and my deadline is 4 pm today. Thank you in advance for your time.

Best,
Nell

Brian,

I'm a writer for Newsweek and I'm working on an article about the planned student protest for tomorrow in response to Governor McMaster's push for the Board of Trustees to vote on the next university president tomorrow. Does Governor McMaster have any comment on the protest?

Students I've spoken to also claimed that McMaster advocating for Lieutenant General Robert Caslen showed he cared more about an unidentified ulterior motive and not student opinions and was bringing politics into the search. Does Governor McMaster have any comment on that?

Thanks for the statement yesterday.

Just for my own planning purposes, off the record, are you anticipating any kind of presser or media availability from the Governor on Friday? I know you've been periodically releasing statements, but wasn't sure if something further would be offered if/when the board votes.

Thanks,

Hey Brian, Steve Benjamin is telling me that it would be illegal for USC's Board of Trustees to approve Robert Caslen for USC president because he does not meet the "minimum training and experience requirements" established in USC policies.

To back this up, he cited USC's HR hiring policies. I was able to track that down and have attached the document and highlighted the relevant paragraph. Does the governor dispute Benjamin's interpretation of this? Would it be legal for the Board of Trustees to name Caslen USC president?

I was LTG Caslen's Chief Diversity Officer (CDO) for 3 years at West Point. As a matter of fact, I was West Point's first CDO because LTG Caslen was the first Superintendent to have a vision that include the creation of this position.

If USC fails to install LTG Caslen as President, I feel that they will look back on this day with regret. The story/legacy of Bob Caslen and what he accomplished during his tenure as West Point Superintendent has yet to be written; and when written, he will hold a place in history as one of the greatest superintendents ever.

LTG Robert Caslen is directly and personally responsible for transforming West Point culture; creating an environment that is more inclusive for women, underrepresented minority groups, and members of the LGBTQ community. He was the first superintendent, that I worked for, that created an environment of shared governance, that was more inclusive of our civilian faculty.

Under his leadership, we developed and implemented the U.S. Military Academy's first Diversity and Inclusion Strategic Plan focused on attraction, recruitment, and retention of a diverse Corps of Cadets and a highly qualified faculty and staff; professional development of faculty, staff, and cadets; and continued and consistent efforts to create an inclusive organizational culture. The primary outcome of this strategy was to provide leaders of character capable of effective leadership in a multicultural Army.

Recognizing the importance of attracting, recruiting, and enrolling a diverse student body, we developed an outreach strategy that resulted in three of the most talented and diverse classes ever admitted to the West Point. This outreach strategy brought together individual organization initiatives with the enterprise in recruiting, outreach, and marketing campaigns to engage external communities representing America's diversity. Record numbers of African Americans and women continue to be admitted to USMA; two demographics that have been historically underrepresented at West Point. This strategy continues to produce today as the Academy recently celebrated the largest class of African American women to ever graduate from West Point. https://www.armytimes.com/news/your-army/2019/05/23/west-point-to-graduate-record-number-of-black-female-cadets/

Over the past several years, the Army has undergone what has amounted to a slow-motion social revolution regarding the issues of diversity, inclusion, and equity. During this period, congress repealed the discriminatory "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" (DADT) policy, which prevented gay, lesbian, and bisexual service members from serving openly and with honesty; the Supreme Court struck down Section 3 of the Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA), which forced the federal government to deny more than 1,000 federal benefits and protections to legally married same-sex couples; and the Department of Defense lifted the military ban on women in combat, allowing them to officially serve on the front lines for the first time. Creating an environment where every cadet, soldier, civilian, and family member perceive themselves as valued team members has been very important for West Point and the Army's immediate future.

In order to support this effort, LTG Caslen approved the creation of West Point's Office of Diversity, Inclusion and Equal Opportunity (ODIEO). By combining the military equal opportunity functions with our diversity and inclusion efforts, we were able to create a directorate responsible for Academy-wide diversity, inclusion, and equity practices and principles. In just a short period of time, diversity and inclusion efforts at West Point reached historical milestones.

Because of LTG Caslen's leadership, the United States Military Academy has its historically first Diversity & Inclusion Strategic Plan. The enrollment for African American cadets went from 9% to greater than 13% and for women cadets from 15% to greater than 21%. In 2014, West Point named its new cadet barracks in honor of General Benjamin O. Davis, Jr.; making this the first building at West Point named for an African American graduate. In 2015, the first woman is installed as the Commandant of Cadets. The first openly gay cadet is selected to be the class president as well as the First Captain; the highest-ranking cadet in the Corps of Cadets. In 2016, the first woman was installed as the Dean of the Academic Board at USMA. A record number of African-American cadets are selected for National Scholarships: Schwartzman, Rotary, GEM Fellowship, as well as the first African-American Rhodes Scholar! In 2017, the first African-American woman is selected to be First Captain and she is also became the first African-American woman to become a Rhodes Scholar in 2018; making her the second African-American Rhodes Scholar in Academy history.

LTG Caslen's list of achievements as a leader in higher education is enormous. I am only sharing the portion of the list that I had strategic oversight of as his CDO. I have also attached a paper that was written on the D&I work at the Academy during his tenure.

All-in-all, Bob Caslen gets it! He is a strategic leader that invites candor in the decision making process and fully understands the issues surrounding Title IX and sexual assault and harassment in the military and higher education. He did more to create transparency in the process of investigating and adjudicating sexual assault cases at the academy. He expanded the number of personnel supporting the Sexual Harassment/Assault Response & Prevention (SHARP) program throughout the Academy. I know that he worked closely with Senator Kriston Gillibrand on improving the Academy's record in this area.

Subject: [External] In Favor of General Robert (Bob) Caslen

Dear University of South Carolina Board of Trustees:

As an alumni, supporter, and donor of the University, I write this letter in full support of General Robert (Bob) Caslen. Having attended the University as an adult student, graduating in 2007. My husband, a Physician and business owner is a 1998 graduate, and my only child is a 2018 graduate. While I live full time in Atlanta Georgia, I also have a condo in Columbia, and spend many weekends in the city, that keeps me close to the University that I love and has given me the opportunities of success. Dr. Harris Pastides and his wife Patricia were more than just a presidential couple, they were friends of our family. We shared many great Gamecock memories and events together. My family was deeply saddened at the announcement of Harris' retirement, but also knew that the time would come. With that said, I closely followed any news reports put out by the University regarding the search of a new president. In April when the interviews were taking place, I watched all 4 with great enthusiasm and anticipation, of which candidate would be the best fit for my beloved university. I admired the strength in General Caslen, as he spoke about meeting with leaders from other country, negotiating with some of the most difficult people, and creating better environments. My heart was thrilled to hear of his love for tradition and leading out college sports teams from the tunnel on game day, speaking to the athletes at practices, and showing up to learn about them individually in study halls. South Carolina is full of tradition and that must be protected. It was most impressive hearing how General Caslen updated the dorms and West Point and he can be accredited to a lot to the growth at University of Central Florida. As a graduate of the college of HRSM I have always somewhat kept up with UCF as they have such a remarkable and respectful hospitality program. I have been amazed at the great things taking place there, before I even knew a thing about General Caslen.

General Caslen carries himself as a man of strength, a leader, and somewhat of a protector: all of which The University of South Carolina needs to look for in a President. With the high cost of tuition, it is important to have someone in the role who can work with law makers and legislators to obtain funds for the flagship university in the state. It is also important to have a leader. That is proven with the out break that is occurring right now with students and faculty. It is dishearten to say the least. General Caslen has the strength and courage to lead the university as well as the professionalism to handle any situation. With the safety risk around any college environment, and with the dangers of five points being so close to USC, it is important to have someone in the Presidents seat that will make the best decisions protecting the students, our University and the safety for all who enter campus.

I sincerely hope that each of you think of the values that University of South Carolina was founded on. Being the largest University in the state with the largest number of veterans, and finding a General to be the next leader of our University seems very appropriate. I have a vested interest in the University through my education, my loyalty, as well as pledges, yearly contributions, ending with being part of my estate plan. I trust that each of you are going to protect not only my investment, but the one of all alumni, current and future students and not allow an out cry of demonstrators to destroy it.

Thank you for your email. The selection of General Robert Caslen as the next president of the University of South Carolina is a positive and transformative step forward for the future of the university and the state. I am confident that every student, alumnus, faculty member and citizen of this state will benefit from his superior leadership, vision and direction, which he has demonstrated throughout his remarkable career.

Please let me know if I can be of assistance in the future.

The State: McMaster forces vote on controversial USC presidential finalist while students are away
https://www.thestate.com/news/local/education/article232415817.html

S.C. Gov. Henry McMaster has successfully pressured the University of South Carolina's board of trustees to cast a vote on a controversial candidate for president.

McMaster has called every member of the school's board of trustees pressuring them to support former West Point Superintendent Robert L. Caslen to be the next president of USC, said Trustee Charles H. Williams.

A vote is scheduled for this Friday at 10 a.m., Williams said.

"(McMaster) has met with some board members and said if they didn't call a meeting he would," Williams said. "I don't think it's appropriate."

Caslen was one of four finalists selected in April to replace Harris Pastides as the school's president. Facing protests from students saying they did not want Caslen as president, USC's board of trustees reopened the presidential search and named USC Upstate Chancellor Brendan Kelly as interim president.

This is not the first time McMaster has vouched for Caslen. Shortly after USC reopened the presidential search, McMaster called Caslen and encouraged him to reapply for the position — but did not call the other three candidates — according to the Post and Courier of Charleston.

"I'm not a Caslen fan," Williams said. "I think we can do better."

Asked why, Williams cited the high percentage of negative comments made about Caslen in the university's public feedback process.

The timing of McMaster's push comes as students and faculty are away for the summer. Williams thinks that's intentional.

"He's trying to get it done quickly. He's trying to get this done when the students and faculty are on summer vacation," Williams said.

When The State reached out to board of trustee Chair John Von Lehe Tuesday morning to confirm the governor has been calling trustees, he said, "It would just not be appropriate for me to comment."

Asked if there were any meetings or official board matters scheduled in regards to the presidential search, Von Lehe declined to comment.

The State has reached out to McMaster's office.

Williams expects the next round of searching for a president to yield even more qualified candidates, he said. That's because some likely thought former USC Provost Michael Amiridis was a "shoe-in," but since he was not among the finalists, others who want the job may think they have a chance, Williams said.

Amiridis did apply for the job, but withdrew his application after all applications had been submitted, Williams said.

Subject: [External] Reopen and continue the search for UofSC's next President

My name is Brock Henderson. I am a UofSC graduate of the Journalism school, Class of 2012, and a former employee of the University of South Carolina Press. I urge you to vote tomorrow to keep the selection process fair and open in the search for UofSC's next President. I urge you to follow your previous vote and reopen the search for UofSC's next President. You, as the Board of Trustees, voted to dismiss those final four candidates and to continue the search process. Please do not abandon that vote and rush to vote for someone that does not fit UofSC and does not meet the requirements for the position.

The qualifications were set as requirements to ensure the University finds a dynamic leader and passionate advocate. One of the requirements you listed was that the candidate will have an "earned doctorate or terminal degree from an accredited institution. Caslen does not meet those requirements you set forth. Do not allow political influence from our legislatures force you to vote for someone that isn't qualified for the position. It is disconcerting and honestly horrifying that SACSCOC is telling us that UofSC's accreditation could be in jeopardy. They are starting an investigation into this process which could lead to probation, sanctions, and possible the loss of accreditation for UofSC. And lets not ignore that number of FOIA request that have been submitted.

I have never in my life thought UofSC could ever be in danger of losing its accreditation nor the possibility that UofSC could no longer exist. The majority of schools that lose their accreditation end up closing their doors for good. Can you honestly imagine not only Columbia but South Carolina as a whole without the University of South Carolina? Can you imagine the shuttering of SC's flagship school? Imagine how much South Carolina could lose if UofSC was no more. UofSC would lose all sports which brings in massive amounts of money for this city and this state. No more Gamecock football, no more Gamecock baseball, basketball, etc. No more NCAA tournaments held in Columbia, no more SEC tournaments held in Columbia, no more ESPN, SEC Network, etc. Unaccredited institutions cannot be part of the SEC or the NCAA. Image the number of students that will transfer out, the number of students that would cross UofSC off their list of possible schools, the number of faculty and staff that will leave. The #1 Honors College will go away. The #1 International Business School will cease to exist. The ever growing technology sector will disappear. The economy will crash, businesses will close putting hundreds and thousands of people out of work. Hotels, restaurants, shops, etc. will be forced to shut down.

Even if UofSC manages to come out of this situation with our accreditation in tact, the possibility of of probation and sanctions still exist which will still hurt UofSC, the City of Columbia, and South Carolina. Enrollment will fall, students will transfer, the economy will still suffer, donations will disappear, federal funding will lessen, etc. Why? All because some of SC's legislatures, who were tasked to work in the best interest of South Carolina, wanted to politically influence this decision and put the accreditation and reputation of UofSC in jeopardy.

Listen to the students, the faculty, the staff and the alumni of UofSC and do not let a few legislatures force you to vote for someone for political reasons. Each one of you are the Board of Trustees are Carolinians and are to follow the Carolinian Creed. "I will practice personal and academic integrity; I will respect the dignity of all persons; I will respect the rights and property of others; I will discourage bigotry, while striving to learn from differences in people, ideas and opinions; I will demonstrate concern for others, their feelings, and their need for the conditions with support their and development." If you choose and vote to move forward and bring Caslen in, you will have violated the Carolinian Creed. You will have not shown integrity; you will have not shown respect to UofSC and it's students, faculty, staff and alumni; you will have shown you had no desire to learn from the differences in people, ideas and opinion; you will have demonstrated that you had no concern for others, their feelings, or their needs. Is that how you want to be remembered? Do you want to be remembered as the Board of Trustees or the Governor that put UofSC in jeopardy or that you were the ones who had a hand in the destruction of this amazing institution?

As a graduate, a former employee and someone who has considered going back to UofSC for a graduate degree, I cannot sit by and watch my beloved University face destruction. So again, I urge you all to dismiss Caslen, as you did before, uphold your vote to reopen the search process and make sure it is a fair and open process. If you decide to move forward with Caslen, the fight for what is right and fair will continue. If you move forward with Caslen, I, along with countless others, will no longer donate to UofSC, we will no longer be able to support an institution that turned its back on so many. This entire situation is embarrassing for UofSC, her students, her faculty, her staff, her alumni, her supporters, her donors, the City of Columbia and South Carolina. Do what is right and vote to continue the search for the right person to lead UofSC into its next era. I have already heard countless stories of people questioning their decision to go to UofSC because of this.

Please, do the right thing. Reopen the search and vote no on Caslen.

Thank you,

Brock Henderson, Class of 2012

Principle, People, Prosperity, Process

We hail thee, Carolina, and sing thy high praise;
With loyal devotion, rememb'ring the days,
When proudly we sought thee, thy children to be;
Here's a health, Carolina, forever to thee!

Since pilgrims of learning, we entered thy walls,
And found dearest comrades in thy classic halls;
We've honored and loved thee, as sons faithfully;
Here's a health, Carolina, forever to thee!

Generations of sons have rejoiced to proclaim
Thy watchword of service, thy beauty and fame
For ages to come shall their rallying cry be;
Here's a health, Carolina, forever to thee!

Fair shrine of high honor and truth, thou shalt still Blaze forth as a beacon, thy mission fulfill;
And be crowned by all hearts in a new jubilee;
Here's a health, Carolina, forever to thee!

Dear Governor McMaster:

Thank you for your letter of July 11, 2019. I, as Chairman of the Board, believe it is in the best interest of the University of South Carolina to schedule a meeting at a time and date which are most convenient to all members of the Board. I have therefore scheduled a meeting at 10:00 a.m. on Friday, July 19, in the C. Edward Floyd Boardroom at the Pastides Alumni Center.

With Kind Regards,

John C. von Lehe, Jr.

Ladies and gentlemen of the Board,
I respectfully submit to you a copy of the attached letter in response to the current issue regarding the successor to Harris Pastides, President of the University of South Carolina. My letter is addressed to Mr. Hubbard, who represents my judicial circuit. I mailed his letter today, but in the interest of time, I prefer to not wait upon the our US Postal Service for members of the Board to read it. (Forgive me, please, Mr. Hubbard.)

Thank you for your considering my letter in your deliberations.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Hubbard:

I write to express my concern over the University of South Carolina Board of Trustees' impending action on the candidacy of Robert L. Caslen for president of the University.

Please permit me to establish my bona fides. I am a three-time graduate of USC: Bachelor of Arts (1970), Master of Arts (1975), and Doctor of Philosophy (1977). I have spent my professional career in higher education in South Carolina and elsewhere, retiring from Clemson University in 2010 as an associate dean and faculty member. I worked joyfully for USC in several capacities in my early years. I also served on the Board of Trustees of Winthrop University for eight years and on the State Board for Technical and Comprehensive Education as representative of the State Superintendent of Education. Finally, I am grounded in the knowledge, skills, and dispositions required by various accreditation bodies; I have led or served on accreditation committees at the local, state, regional, and national levels.

I know our state, I know higher education, I know accreditation, and I know higher education governance.

I grew up as a military brat, following my father, an Air Force pilot, to his various duty stations around the world. I spent my developmental years as a dependent in a military environment, and thus I have no issue with the man; my concerns are with the process.

There are three issues that the Board may not have considered:

First, Mr. Caslen has no terminal degree; there is no life-skills equivalent to the rigor, discipline, and credibility inherent in academic research, and this alone should disqualify him from leading a Carnegie 1 research institution. Faculty spend their entire lives conducting research, teaching, and serving their institution and their communities, and while West Point is a higher-education institution, make no mistake: it is a military base and has a military mission, to wit (from their website):

> The U.S. Military Academy at West Point's mission is "to educate, train, and inspire the Corps of Cadets so that each graduate is a commissioned leader of character committed to the values of Duty, Honor, Country and prepared for a career of professional excellence and service to the Nation as an officer in the United States Army."

Second, Mr. Caslen's military background, glorious as it is, does not prepare him for the culture of a research university and its requisite shared governance. Faculty are central to the life and culture of a university; they are hired because of the knowledge, talent, skills, and uniqueness they bring to enrich the lives of those within and without. They require a leader who understands, lives, and shares their beliefs and values. I see no evidence that Mr. Caslen shares this world view.

Third is the issue of accreditation, and this is absolutely critical. The Resource Manual for the Principles of Accreditation: Foundations for Quality Enhancement (Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges, Third Edition, First Printing (http://www.sacscoc.org/pdf/2018%20POA%20Resource%20Manual.pdf) is specific in its standards.

> Standard *4.1(c) The board ensures that both the presiding officer and a majority of the other members are neither civilian employees of the military nor active/retired military. Both the presiding officer of the board and a majority of other voting board members are free of any contractual, employment, personal or familial financial interest in the institution.
> Standard 4.1(d) the board is not controlled by a minority of board members or by organizations or interests separate from the board except as specified by the authorizing legislation. (p. 20).
> Standard 4.2 (f) The governing board protects the institution from undue influence by external persons or bodies. (External influence) (p. 28).

I have included the URL (above) for this referenced document; because accreditation is high-stakes, the Board of Trustees would be wise to review this section carefully as well as Standard 10.4 that speaks to shared governance (p. 95).

I have not addressed students in this letter; that would take several more pages. However, when you anger students, you are angering potential donors.

Now my final point: To emphasize how strongly I believe that this process has been sorely tainted and that this man is not appropriate to lead my University, I am taping a penny at the bottom to impress my unequivocal distress at this process. If the University Board of Trustees votes to appoint this candidate as the successor to Harris Pastides, this is the last cent the University will receive from me. #NotOneMorePenny.

With respect,

Nancy Cassity Dunlap

To suggest that the governor, who by law is a member of the board of trustees, did anything improper is preposterous. Governor McMaster has made no secret about the fact, that as a member of the Board, he believes General Robert Caslen is supremely qualified and is perfectly suited to address the challenges ahead for the University of South Carolina."

Lieutenant General Robert Caslen (Biography)

- Lieutenant General Robert Louis Caslen, Jr. is a retired United States Army officer who served as the 59th superintendent of the United States Military Academy at West Point, an institution responsible for commissioning approximately 1,000 officers per year to lead America's soldiers in war. As of September 2018, there were 44 three-star lieutenant generals in the U.S. Army.

- Lt. Gen. Caslen has been married to his wife, Shelly, for over 40 years. Together, they have three children and four grandchildren.

Education

- Caslen is a graduate of West Point. He holds an M.B.A. from Long Island University and an M.S. from Kansas State, where he is in the Hall of Fame in the Engineering Department.

Military Career

- Caslen retired from service in June 2018, after serving in uniform for 43 years, leading more than 200,000 soldiers under nine commanders in chief, deploying six times and running West Point for five years (2013-2018). From 2008-2009, Caslen led over 20,000 soldiers as a division commander in Iraq.

- Caslen was at the Pentagon during the September 11 attacks where he was an assistant deputy director of strategic planning and policy. Following the attack, he re-entered the Pentagon, helping search for wounded and working to re-establish communications with the White House.

- Caslen was a primary author of the National Military Strategic Plan for the War on Terror. He served as chief of the Office of Security Cooperation in Iraq, where he was senior commander on the ground during the U.S. drawdown in 2011.

West Point

- Caslen was the only one of the four original finalists in the search process at USC to have served as president (superintendent) of a college or university. Under Caslen's leadership, Forbes magazine named West Point the No. 1 public liberal arts college in the nation four out of five years.

- While at West Point, Caslen created a shared governance system of students and administrators to better address school-wide issues. He instituted a first-of-its-kind (at West Point) academic freedom policy, which allowed subordinate officers and student policies and leadership in the name of open dialogue and academic enrichment.

- Under his leadership, West Point beat Navy for the first time in fourteen years.

- Led key business development initiatives with the Army and Congress, resulting in new barracks construction ($185M), refurbishment of existing barracks (9 years, $850M), a new Cyber Engineering Center academic building ($165M), and refurbishment of existing academic buildings (10 year, $950M).

- Caslen successfully worked to increase diversity at West Point. At the start of his tenure, the African American student population was 6%. By the time he left, it was 17%. At the start of his tenure the female student population was only 14%. By the time he left, it was up to 22%.

- Caslen was the first president to select a female provost and the first to select a female commandant of cadets. He selected an African American female as "First Captain" (essentially, student body president). Neither demographic had served in this role before.

- Caslen also fought to ensure LGBTQ representation at West Point. He recently received the 2019 Knights Out Award, given by the West Point LGBTQ community to a West Point leader who most supports diversity and inclusion among West Point graduates.

- Lt. Gen. Caslen fought sexual assault not only at West Point, but also as a co-chair of the National Collegiate Athletic Association's (NCAA's) National Commission to Eliminate Sexual Violence on College Campuses Across America.

- Earlier this year, Caslen was presented the NCAA's highest honor, the Theodore Roosevelt Award, recognizing a "distinguished citizen of national reputation and outstanding accomplishment." The NCAA noted that Caslen "revered his cadets and they reciprocated."

- In May, Caslen received the Distinguished Graduate Award. His nomination was supported by 60 letters of endorsement from current and former Secretaries of State, other former cabinet secretaries, current and former ambassadors, a host of U.S. senators and congressmen, many of America's most senior military leaders, a Fortune 50 CEO, a Presidential Medal of Freedom recipient and the cadet leaders from the Class of 2019.

UCF

- In January, Caslen was hired by the University of Central Florida (the nation's second largest university) as chief accountability officer to address $85 million in misappropriated operational funds.

The governor has called everyone trying to get The general to be our next president. To say this would be a mistake is surely an understatement. Harvey Peeler and Dick Harpootlian have introduced a bill to re-organize our board. Senator Hutto and others have said that it is all a joke and they are mad that Vincent Shaheen was not named as our president. This bill has no chance however if we go back and elect the general then surely as expected all hell breaks loose with faculty and students then this bill will pass.I know all of you love the University surely we can find someone who we can all agree upon and who will be a great president. Please don't let politics ruin the University.

COLUMBIA, S.C. – University of South Carolina Athletics Director Ray Tanner has reorganized his senior staff, giving five administrators new titles and duties, it was announced Monday.

Charles Waddell continues his long service to Gamecock Athletics as Special Assistant to the Athletics Director Ray Tanner. Waddell came to South Carolina as Associate Athletics Director in February 2006. He will take on long-range planning projects for the department, conducting comparative analysis's with Southeastern Conference and NCAA programs, coach and student-athlete mentoring and liaison with community and campus groups and departments.

Chance Miller has been named Senior Deputy Athletics Director. He now has expanded oversight of the day-to-day operations and initiatives of the Athletics Department and will serve as primary sport administrator for football. He will continue to serve as the senior associate general counsel for the department, provide executive oversight for the compliance services office and serve as primary sport administrator for swimming and diving. Miller joined the USC staff in 2013 after a stint with the NCAA.

Judy Van Horn, an integral part of the athletics department senior staff since 2011, has been named Deputy Athletics Director for Internal Operations & Risk Management. In her new role, Van Horn oversees Gamecock Sports Science, South Carolina's all-inclusive student-athlete health care program which encompasses sports medicine, mental health, mental performance, nutrition, sports performance, equipment and apparel and athletics department dining services. Van Horn is also the Title IX deputy coordinator and athletics department liaison to the Office of Equal Opportunity Programs and is involved with staff and student-athlete misconduct. She will continue to oversee Human Resources and serve as primary sport administrator for volleyball, men's tennis and women's tennis.

Dr. Steve Eigenbrot will serve as the Executive Associate Athletics Director for Development and Chief Executive Officer of the Gamecock Club. He has been with the Gamecock athletics department since 2010 and was the lead fundraiser for the department's $200 million Garnet Way Campaign and for new construction projects such as the $50 million Cyndi and Kenneth Long Family Football Operations Center and the $22.5 million renovation project planned for 2020 at Williams-Brice Stadium. Dr. Eigenbrot closed the naming gifts for the Long Center, the Rice Football Campus, Cregger Athletics Village and Wheeler Beach. He is also the sport administrator for men's and women's golf.

Maria Hickman has been promoted to Executive Associate Athletics Director and Senior Woman Administrator. She becomes the primary sport administrator for women's basketball and beach volleyball as well as secondary sport administrator for volleyball. Hickman adds national and conference responsibilities as the senior woman administrator representative for SEC and NCAA governance as well as department-wide leadership. Hickman will provide executive oversight for the Dodie Anderson Academic staff and serve as diversity and inclusion officer. She has been a valued member of the South Carolina athletics staff since 2007.

Subject: [External] URGENT MEDIA INQUIRY: Gov. McMaster on new USC pres candidate

Hi Brian,

Hope all is well – wanted to be sure to touch base on reports that Governor McMaster has called a meeting of the University of South Carolina board of trustees to elect Robert Caslen Jr. as University president.

Can you confirm this? And would the Governor like to chat about his hopes for this candidate?
Happy to do a quick phone interview or use a statement if that works better with his schedule.
It looks like Mr. Caslen is getting a lot of attention on campus from students – I'm curious to hear from Gov. McMaster about his message to the campus community and the state about this candidate.

My cell is [redacted]

Thank you for your time,

Major College Education Reform at no cost to state that would reduce the costs of education and add needed diversity to college boards.

Major cost saving component would be a standardized finical reporting system that would be used by all state supported higher education institutions. That standardized reporting would show the university as a whole as well as the performance of each of the colleges or each of the colleges or units in the University. In short you would have a profit and loss statement on each college and the university as a whole.

By each institution using the same revenue and expense allocation you could measure each intuitions performance. Carolina, Clemson , Coastal, etc would all be using the same metrics.

You would find for first time, that operating expenses would show up across the board as allocations of revenue.

You would find for first time, that operating expenses would show up across the board as allocations of revenue.

I would immediately take effect.

The Elliott Davis folks have worked on such a model. They have system that will work for all.

Part two. Most major business or organizations have governance procedures that help provide their boards with structure. One duty of the governance committee is have governance procedures that help provide their boards with structure. One duty of the governance committee is to always make sure the composition of the board has folks on it that are qualified and have the skills needed to help the institutions to remain competitive and make the appropriate decisions.

The governance committee monitors attendance, conflict of interest, board education, and what skill sets are needed by new board members when a vacancy members when a vacancy occurs, among other duties. I'm not sure how many higher education institutions have real governance committee but they should.

They governance committee monitors what skills are needed and makes the recommendation to the screening committee when a vacancy is coming up. For instance a board may need a contractor, and architect, a doctor, structural engineer, dentist, lawyer, banker, whatever. They make the dentist, lawyer, banker, whatever. They make the recommendation to the screening committee. Screening committee advertises in my judicial district 15 that so one is needed on the USC board that is an architect to serve on the USC board. Please apply. There will be 15 architects running. Over time the board will have balanced skill sets as well as diversity.

The present day screening committee ask if you attend meeting etc. If you had a governance committee report that was sent to the screening committee they would already have attendance records and know the skill set mix on the board.

The screening committee always asks about conflicts. That is usually handled in the governance committee and there should be records where the board had received education on governance procedures including conflict of interest. Board self evaluations etc etc.

These may be of interest to you as you address higher education reform.

Burroughs >

higher education reform.

I need to mention to you diversity on USC board. We have mostly lawyers. We need architect, builder, business person, accountant etc...kind of like MUSC all Drs they need diversity also.

Sat, Jun 29, 10:57 AM

In reality. Trump will never get a vote from any university president, faculty member, dean , or administration folks. The way to fix the student debt program is not to forgive debt but to fix the debt but to fix the problem. The higher education model is broken. If gov provides government loan guarantees. Then the universities must all have a standard accounting system. Must have governance procedures for its trustees regents, all students receiving loans really all students need to understand what the starting salary is for each degree earned, how long it takes to get a job, how many degrees do you need BA MA PH D to get the job you want. Total costs time to employment costs time to employment and get them to sign a statement. These simple things would go a long way to fixing the system. Trump understands the operating statements of universities need to be just like those of any other business. State and federal support , all grants military defense etc should be based on universities performance.

So simple. Higher Ed is the last great unregulated business. No one understands their operations.

Henry I just sent this to some of our board members. It's my opinion. Hope you are having a good day. Your friend Egerton.

Fellow board Members, I have given our predicament at USC great thought. Our lack of leadership on our board with no apparent change in sight and the total lack of seasoned secondary leadership (direct reports t the president) in our administrative area , I believe we will need a administrative area , I believe we will need a strong experienced individual to head the university. Our board is splintered beyond belief. Some very powerful board members want William to be present . That's it acceptable for many reasons. I've heard Harris wants Brendan as president and will be a mentor and work with him on a daily basis. Harris has retired and should not be involved in running the school anymore(you can't have two Presidents). The confusion would be unbelievable. We have no unbelievable. We have no board governance procedures in place so there has been no succession planning and there are no job descriptions with qualifications and credentials needed for the jobs in place for the top six direct reports to the president. Those positions are vacant except one. Shame on us. No governance. The one person in place has fought putting the new budget model in place for years keeping us from knowing the financial condition of the units and the

Burroughs >

the units and the university. We are over extended on our debt level , way above our capacity to service it without tuition increases and fee increases, and the complexity of the operations are above our operating skill level, have just committed to operate 445 million dollars of complex dormitory apartments with multitudes of amenities and we cant even operate a campus bookstore or a parking garage. Our athletic borrowing in basically maxed out and we are loosing in almost all

Yes. Manufacturers along with nine major military bases, plus McEntire for the SC National Guard. And the upcoming cyber command just over the border at Fort Gordon. And 400,000 veterans in SC. PS: Caslan wants to take distance learning to all the bases. Etc.

Sounds great..

You are aware that David Seaton is highly in favor of Caslan?

July 17, 2019

To Whom It May Concern:

I was raised by a single mother in a high-crime, low-income neighborhood of Shreveport, LA. I went on to become the first African-American cadet elected Class President at West Point, a company commander in the United States Army, and Student Body President at Harvard Law. After graduating from Harvard, I returned to Shreveport and was elected Mayor. I owe my success to the goodwill of a great many people. One of those people is Lt. Gen Robert Caslen.

Bob Caslen is a man of unimpeachable character. He was the Commandant at West Point during my stint as Class President. He worked closely with student leadership, which is where our relationship began. As Commandant, Lt. Gen Caslen was steadfast in his commitment to equal opportunity and adamant about his belief that diversity strengthens organizations.

The United States Military Academy doubled its African-American population and substantially increased female enrollment during his tenure. Lt. Gen Caslen led the charge to transform the culture on campus. He spearheaded the NCAA sexual assault commission, introduced the position of Chief Diversity Officer, and worked tirelessly to create a more welcoming environment for LGBTQ cadets. When his efforts to create a more inclusive atmosphere drew the ire of alumni and donors, he stood between the detractors and those under his command.

I have not encountered a single cadet under Lt. Gen Caslen's leadership as Commandant or Superintendent that speaks ill of him. They universally sing his praises because Bob Caslen invests in those he leads. He continues to answer phone calls and reply to emails long after students and mentees have left his charge. Lt. Gen Caslen sponsored my military career. He wanted me to remain in the Army instead of going to law school. However, Bob Caslen was among the first to send a letter of support when I decided to enroll in Harvard Law. He continues to be a pillar of support for me. When the final votes were tallied, and I was named Shreveport's next Mayor, Bob Caslen was one of the first to congratulate me. When I asked him to serve on my transition team, he did not hesitate to say, "Yes!"

Lt. Gen Robert Caslen embodies leadership. I chose to enter the military following the tragic events of September 11th. On that infamous day, Lt. Gen Caslen was inside the Pentagon. After being evacuated, he rushed back into the building to search for survivors. This story illustrates his selfless style of leadership, while I did not know Bob Caslen on September 11th, 2001, his heroic actions exemplify the sense of duty and courage that inspired me to enroll at West Point and serve my country in Iraq and Afghanistan.

I am confident that Lt. Gen Robert Caslen is the right man to serve as the 29th President of the University of South Carolina. He is a man of integrity who values diversity and strives for progress in all that he does. I am proud to give him my full and unequivocal endorsement to be the next President of the University of South Carolina.

I fully support Governor McMaster's efforts to provide leadership at USC. The Social Justice Warriors, both students and faculty, will protest, moan and groan at every turn, but the working men and women of this state deserve proven leadership that will not bend to fickle wants of the mob the working men and women of this state deserve proven leadership that will not bend to fickle wants of the mob.

These Social Justice Warriors want to redistribute our wealth and opportunities based on their Marxist ideologies and without worry about the consequences to our future. They believe in the minority rule of the angry mob, not the majority rule of the silent, hardworking, tax paying men and women of SC.

If USC allows itself to be led by the mob, the people of SC need to reconsider their support for USC.
